

Bridging Ages Conference in Finland 2009

Call for papers

"Bridging Local History in a Global Context 10-13.9.2009"

Welcome to Bridging Ages' conference in Ostrobothnia, Finland for exciting and inspiring days with the theme: "Bridging local history in a global context". The theme will be discussed in seminars and workshops with participants from all over the world. We all have a local history! But how do we interpret, communicate and learn from it?

You are welcome to present your project in Historic Environment Education at the conference. We are looking forward to hear reflections from your school, organisation or museum. Submit an abstract (max 1 A4) including a presentation of yourself, to ebbe.westergren@kalmarlansmuseum.se at latest by April 17th, 2009.

The conference will take place on the western coast of Finland, at Stundars Open Air Museum and in the surroundings of the city of Kokkola. The Market Square in Kokkola will be the scene for a big Time-travel back to 1809 and the dawn of a new autonomous nation, Finland... There is a possibility to join already on Wednesday 9.9.2009 and participate in hands-on archeological project with school children.
